

Progetto CMR Cocktail Event

By Guo Yong'en

To celebrate the recent China Award as the Best Italian Design Company on the Chinese Market organized by the Italy-China Foundation and the entrance among the 100 Worldwide Best Architecture Firm in 2010, Progetto CMR will host a celebration for its clients and business professionals who are in the same sector at Scarlett Wine Bar in Hotel G on Tuesday, April 13.

While participants will be enjoying the evening with cocktails and friends in the same field, they will also have a chance to meet Massimo Roj, the founder and president of the company.

Progetto CMR is an Italian architecture firm that has offices in Milan, Rome, Athens, Barcelona, Beijing and Tianjin. With the cooperation of Italian and Chinese architects in China, the company has involved in various projects including a seven-star hotel in Jilin Province, a residential master plan in Tianjin, Cobra's new production plant in Beijing and a 30,000-seat stadium for the Songjiang group.

For information about the cocktail event, contact Alberto Tosco at a.Tosco@progettocmr.com.

samily.kwok@globaltimes.com.cn

Top: Massimo Roj, Progetto CMR's founder and president. Urban Planning Exhibition Hall, Tianjin. Photos: Courtesy of Progetto CMR